

Junior Piano Adjudicator

Carol McFadden

Carol McFadden holds ARCT Diplomas in both Voice and Piano Performance from The Royal Conservatory of Music. She also holds a Bachelor of Sacred Music from Tyndale College and Seminary in Toronto. In addition, Ms. McFadden received a Master of Music degree (Voice Pedagogy) from Westminster Choir College of Rider University in Princeton, New Jersey.

This educational background has enabled Ms. McFadden to have enjoyed a rich career experience of teaching both adults and children and was a faculty member of The Royal Conservatory of Music from 1978-1991.

Until recently, she was a collaborative pianist at Western University in London, ON. She has also been a part-time faculty member at Wilfrid Laurier University (Waterloo, ON) and in the theatre divisions of Toronto Metropolitan (Ryerson) University and Sheridan College (Oakville).

She is Music Director for regional professional theatres, various denominations of churches and is the founding conductor of the Centre Wellington Singers (soon celebrating its 30th anniversary). Adjudicating opportunities have been in piano, voice, music theatre and choral categories for various Kiwanis and Rotary festivals and for ORMTA and NATS chapters in Ontario.

